By your signature, you acknowledge that you understand this definition and will honor it. You may be disqualified if you are found in violation of these rules. However, the Martinsville Arts Council, Morgan County Public Library, and the Morgan County Fall Foliage Festival do not have the means to research if entrants fit the definition of a professional.

Entrants can submit up to six photographs in the color or black and white competitions. Each photo must have an entry blank attached to the back of the mounting board. Due to library construction, there may be limited space for displaying photos this year. It is possible that ONLY the winners will be displayed due to this constraint. If space allows, each participant can have up to 3 photos displayed. Please designate which photos you would like to have displayed by checking the box on the entry blank.
3. All photos will be judged as an open class in either color or black and white competition. Photographs may be of any subject, found anywhere and must have been taken after October 1, 2018. Photographs entered in previous FFF contests will be disqualified.
